PLOT

Nathaniel Higgers heads to /qa/ high like any other day, He sees a glowing man interrogating his friend Chud. The glowing man approaches Nate and politely asks Nate to follow him. Despite Chud's warning, Nate follows. Nate tries to ask why he's needed, but the glowie doesn't respond. He is led to a truck labeled "soysylum", Nate freaks the fuck out and tries to run from the glowie, but is grabbed before he can get too far. Nate suddenly hears a loud bang, and looks up to see that someone has shot the glowie, It's chud, he came to save him. Nate and Chud are on the run, they steal the soysylum truck without thinking and drive off, not realising they have another passenger. About an hour down the road they hear the faint noise of someone talking, when they look in the back of the truck they see a “woman” named troonella, a 6-time world champ in women's wrestling. Xhe said xhe saw the whole thing happen and decided to tag along.

Troonella begs the group to stop as xhe says xhe needs to dilate, like all real women do. So they reluctantly stop at a roadside gas station, While Chud is admiring the shitty gas station knives, Nate is asking around for directions to Ohio, as he has family there and is hoping to stay with them. The owner is a sickly green, but before Nate notices anything, Troonella screams. Xhe found the body of an employee in the women's restroom, his nametag said “SNEED, OWNER”. Troonella alerts Nate that who he is speaking to is not the owner, but agent ‘Plier, who somehow survived his gunshot and has been following the group, waiting for a chance to strike. They all make a break for it, Chud grabs a few shitty knives on the way out, narrowly avoiding ‘Plier. On the road again, a pit forms in Nate's stomach as he sees 2 helicopters labelled CIA following him. They start to open fire on the truck, causing Nate to swerve off into a ditch. As the agents approach the truck, they notice that nobody is in it. Confused, they report back to ‘Plier. Unbeknownst to the CIA, Nate had escaped into the sewer systems below the city.

In the sewers, Nate and Chud complain about the smell, Troonella doesn't seem to mind as xhe says “it's familiar”. Through the echoing darkness, they hear the faint sound of music, and what sounds like someone singing along to it. As they get deeper, the stench worsens, and even troonella starts to complain. They walk into a large room, split in the center by sewage, on the other side sits a brown pile of flesh, with awards stapled to his skin, and mumbling about gooning to ‘O. Chud lashes out, scaring the beast and causing it to attack. It chases the gang through the sewers, its body squeezing through the passages, before the beast comes to an abrupt stop, seemingly terrified, and runs back into the shadows. Confused, the group looks around. The room is sparse, just an old bed in the corner with a TV. That's when Troonella notices something, Scribbled in a burgundy color reads the words "RAPESON". Chud recounts tales of a criminal so vile that his name was scrubbed from the history books. Chud realized that they are in the sewer system beneath the soysylum, but before he can say anything, a sickening voice emerges from the cell. "Come a little closer" the voice says, reluctantly, Nate approaches, and he is then grabbed by a muscular hand. Chud uses his quick thinking and slashes at the man's hand with a knife, causing his grip to loosen and Nate to escape. The Man in the cell starts to go apeshit, the darkness shrouding the visuals of the man bashing his head on the concrete floor in anger, the only clue being the sickening sounds coming from the cell. The group moves along, deeper into the underbelly of the soysylum, scarred by what they just witnessed.

Walking past the cells of horrors, they come to a set of stairs that leads up to a laboratory, but before they can ascend, they are stopped by 'Plier and his goons who surround the group and initiate a fight. Chud, knowing what he has to do locks Nate and Troonella in the lab, despite their protests, and goes on a rampage, mowing down hundreds of glowies with his weapons, before he is ultimately overwhelmed by the feds and his fate is unknown. Troonella and Nate reflect on what just happened and reluctantly decide to keep moving.

Troonella and Nate notice hundreds of tubes with large brown homonculi growing inside of them, the room is labeled "Jartycuck Testing Area". Silently, they move through the lab, when Troonella realises the lab has an entire cabinet full of HRT, without thinking, she runs over and grabs as much as she can, waking a fully grown jartycuck in his tube.

The jartycuck breaks free and rushes toward troonella, xhe gets BTFO by the jartycuck, allowing for Nate to escape.

Nate moves forward intending on confronting soyberg himself, the closer he gets to soybergs office, the more is revealed to him. He goes through a room labeled “The AdmiN Project” where he sees photos of various people, with the words “FAILED” written on the pictures, labeled ON1 through N9. They all looked different from each other. One looked like an orange, one was as black as soot, but what caught Nate’s eye was experiment N8, the only one that passed. The photo of N8 depicted a young blonde child, no older than 8 months, but before he could say anything, he felt an intimidating presence behind him. It was Dr.Soyberg.

Soyberg looks at Nate with a smug look on his face, “it seems you now know the truth”. Nate, distraught at the loss of his friends, rushes at Dr.Soyberg, but is stopped by agent ‘Plier. Dr.Soyberg says “Its been such a long time, Experiment N-8, we have a lot of catching up to do, or should I say, Admin Thrembo” Nate goes limp as Dr.Soyberg explains that Nate was taken from the lab at a young age by a rogue scientist, to spare him from the torturous experiments that Dr.soyberg would have subjected him to. “Great work by the way, N-9, that stunt you pulled at the gas station was really something, can’t believe you two are from the same batch!” says Dr.Soyberg. “But why me?” Nate asks, “because (YOU) are my most perfect creation, with (YOU) I can create SCIENTIFICALLY PERFECT GEMS”. “You Can’t mass produce gems, Gems are art, without work, A gem is COAL” Nate snaps. “The ‘log won’t know, I’ll fill it with so much NAS, that a ‘Plier thread will look like Tanzinite compared to everything else, I can control the board, I can control what makes a Gem a Gem” Soyberg remarks.

Soyberg laughs maniacally, only stopped when a bullet grazes his ear, “what was that, ‘Plier Protect meAAAAAAAACK–” Soyberg is stopped in the middle of his words, the words “Not so fast, doctor” chime from behind him, it’s Troonella, xhe tied a rope around Soyberg’s neck. “Troonella? You’re alive!?” Nate exclaimed, “Not just Xer, buddy” as Chud’s voice triumphed over the choking Soyberg. “You think I couldnt handle a couple of feds? Come on” Chud says sarcastically. “And that Jartycuck thing wasnt too hard to deal with, I just injected him with some of that HRT is stole, and now Xhe is a valid trans woman” Troonella said excitedly. “W-wait, Nate don’t do thi-AAAAAAAACK” Soyberg said. “I think I know what I have to do” nate said, “Soyberg, YOU WILL NEVER BE A GEM” nate screamed, “alright gang, you ready?” Nate asked, Chud and Troonella nodded “TOGETHER WE ARE, SOY JAK PARTY” They all exclaimed together. Before Soyberg gave out, he pressed a button on the control panel, unlocking the cells of the soysylum inmates, leaving this world behind with one final “AAAAAAAAAAAAACCCCCCKKKKKKKK”.
