

Wolfgang / Internet Adjacent Situation

This document covers allegations / topics pertaining to:

Sexual predation, zoophilia, sexual coercion, unwanted sexual contact, suicidal ideation, suicide baiting, emotional manipulation, image leaking & privacy invasion, sexually transmitted diseases

Internet Adjacent / Wolfgang is a Commentary YouTuber with 14.4k subscribers known for creating topic based commentary and news channel that covers ongoing internet drama and situations. He was also a once close associate and friend.

Internet Adjacent has a history of prior allegations pertaining to his behaviour during Anthrocon 2024 such as alleged sexual assault and unwarranted advances towards others.

Wolfgang SA allegation - Anthrocon 2024

Threatening Suicide / Suicide Baiting;

Wolfgang suicide baiting

Recently he has appeared to have exercised examples of emotional manipulation and coerced me into giving him sexual favors. He can be seen continuously pestering me and instigating sexual-based topics of conversation to get me to sexually engage with him, despite red flags showing that I was not reciprocating.

I felt obligated to have sex with Wolfgang and I didn't feel as if I had the ability to say no. While I seemingly did oblige, I was physically uncomfortable, I physically froze during numerous instances and my body language showed I was not enjoying it whatsoever as I was close to throwing up during certain intervals.

In reality I only engaged because I was scared of the repercussions if I did not engage since he was rather demanding during certain instances and I was anxious as to not upset him. I had even told Wolf that I have difficulty stating no to people.

I paid for his plane ticket which was over $1167 and felt compelled to engage to satisfy him, as he was consistently asking for sexual favors.

As of recently Wolfgang has now been requesting for me to have also paid for the AirBNB that only he used and found, despite him not only having a job at Dominoes, but also being paid a significant amount on YouTube the past month. Wolfgang also omits the fact that he, on his own volition, offered to pay the expenses of the AirBNB while I bought the plane ticket.

FakeWolfgang 07/10/2025, 20:57

@Parlo I'll book the airbnb when you paypal me the rest

Parlo 07/10/2025, 18:33

Chilling in bed

I'm a little confused on what to do

Like with the airbnb since I can't stay over

FakeWolfgang 07/10/2025, 18:34

I'll pay for it and you can come and visit

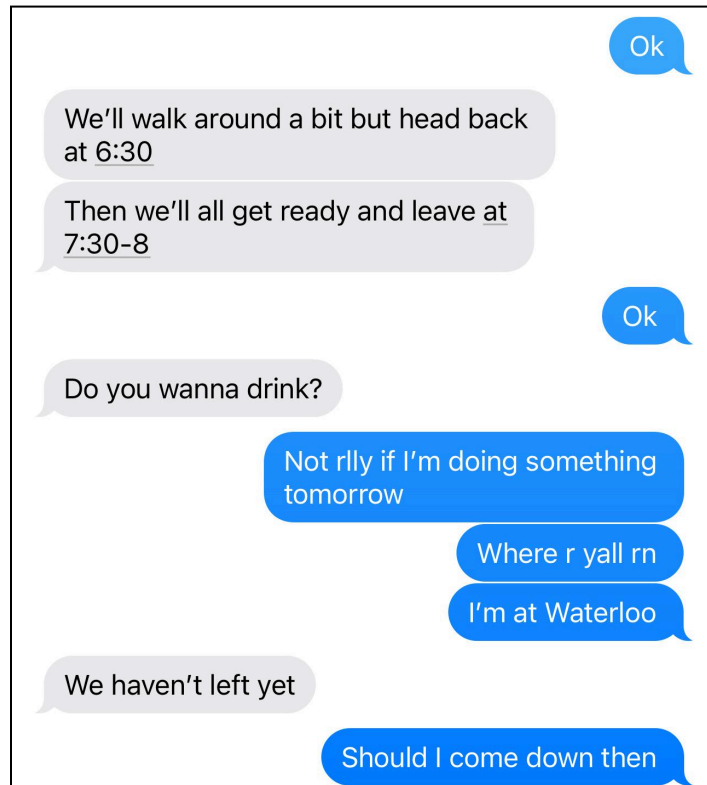

Under no circumstances did I ever state that I was going to pay for the AirBNB and plane ticket, especially when he stated he would book and pay for it on his own volition as late as 7th October 2025 since he was the only person using it. The plane ticket was considerably expensive and the AirBNB would only have been purchased by me as discussed on October 2nd if it was $800 for the plane ticket.

[Suicide Baiting Example No.1]

Example of Wolfgang attempting to fish for sympathy due to his situation in hospital. This was due to him being dissuaded from the fact that I was not responding to him enough and giving him attention.

He is seen instigating the topic of conversation about him being in hospital to elicit a response, following with an image of him in hospital while stating "hey", to once again get my attention to which I am seen expressing my concern.

[Evidence A]

Wolfgang is seen offering me if I want to have alcohol with me being dissuaded from taking it, making an excuse that if we were to do anything tomorrow, alcohol would complicate the situation.

[Evidence B]

Wolfgang is seen asking if I wanted to 'cuddle' and proposing oral sex, with me airing the proposal due to me being uncomfortable and instead stating what station I was at to swiftly change the topic of conversation, as I was dissuaded from wanting to engage in sexual acts with him, this being abundantly clear when examining the text messages between me and him.

[Evidence C]

Wolfgang was seen attempting to instigate sexual based conversations with me in regards to oral sex and proposing that he 'can just do it tomorrow', as I offered the excuse that I didn't want to as I was 'sleepy'. I was seen not engaging or replying because I did not want to have sex with Wolfgang. Wolfgang also was then seen posting unsolicited images.

[Evidence D]

Wolfgang was seen claiming Yxillo was going to be 'staying at someone's house' [someone being a theoretical person met at a club]. This was said by Wolf to instigate the topic of conversation of me and him having the AirBNB to ourselves to have sex. In reply I was seen making the excuse that I 'wanted to record a script' hinting that I would be pre-occupied, and not engaging with the flow of the conversation by referencing sex whatsoever.

Wolfgang very openly did not want Yxillo to share the AirBNB during several instances, resulting in him asking Yxillo to leave late at night in a town unknown to him, just so he could sexually engage with me by himself.

[Evidence E]

11th Oct 2025

Wolfgang is seen stating that he does not want Yxillo in the other room while he has sex, with me stating that we can push the day back, showing that I did not want to necessarily have sex that day either.

Wolfgang states 'it is up to you', but is then seen stating; 'I'd rather tonight though', coaxing me into the idea that I needed to have sex with him as soon as he arrived to satisfy him and not upset him, despite me very evidently not wanting to.

Wolfgang is then seen stating; 'I can ask him [Yxillo] to dip for a bit'. It is disrespectful for Wolfgang to have forced Yxillo [who just turned 18], to go outside of the AirBNB in a city he is not accustomed to late at night, just so he can engage sexually with someone by himself.

This caused Yxillo to have 2 uncomfortable confrontations from strangers that could have put him in direct danger.

During the sexual experiences I was extremely uncomfortable that Yxillo was essentially forced out of the accommodation that he shared.

FakeWolfgang Yesterday at 16:36

Do you want me to change and we can do stuff?
Yxillo's down to head out for a bit

Parlo Yesterday at 16:37

I wanna chill for now on MC

FakeWolfgang Yesterday at 16:37

Alright

[Evidence F]

13th October 2025

Wolfgang is seen once again instigating the topic of conversation about having sex after he changes his clothes. I am seen in reply, shutting down his proposition and stating that I just want to 'chill' on Minecraft. I used this as an excuse as in reality I did not want to have sex.

Wolfgang was also seen stating that Yxillo was 'down' to head out on again.

FakeWolfgang 12/10/2025, 23:40

do you still wanna try topping?

Parlo 12/10/2025, 23:41

I coulddd but im stressy about it allll
I don't know if I'd be able to stay hard

FakeWolfgang 12/10/2025, 23:41

we can try something tonight before you leave to see, I kinda wanna blow you in this outfit tbh that'll tell us if you can stay hard

Parlo 12/10/2025, 23:43

I was actually about to leave pretty soon since I keep falling asleep haha

FakeWolfgang 12/10/2025, 23:43

ah that's ok

[Evidence G]

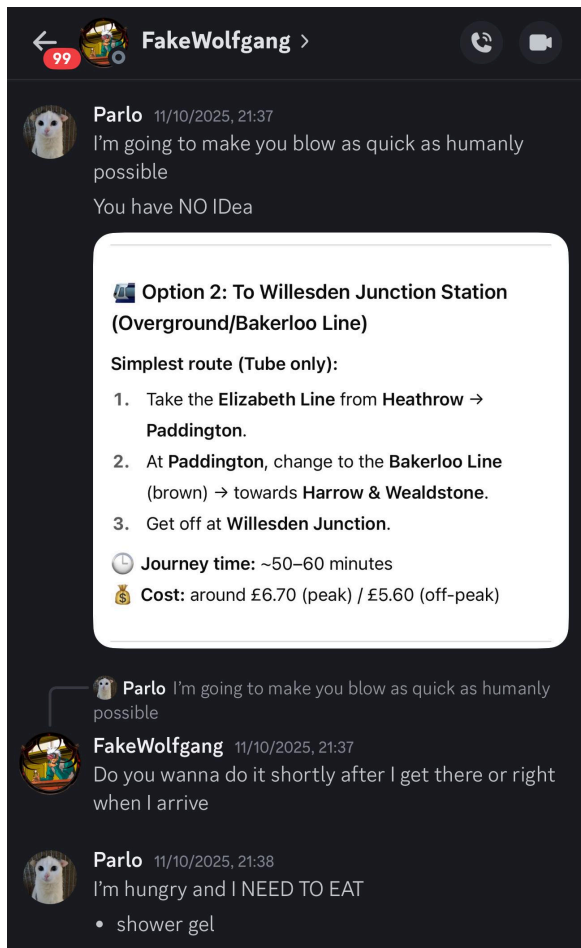

*Wolfgang was seen instigating a sexual based topic of conversation in regards to 'topping'. In reply I am seen stating that 'I could', however I was 'too stressy', and 'wouldn't be able to stay hard', telltale statements to indicate the fact that I would not be comfortable to engage.

Wolfgang was seen not picking up on this and instead sought to continue to push for sex, stating that 'we can try something tonight', 'that'll tell us if you can stay hard'.

In reply I am seen stating that I was 'about to leave soon', to diffuse and shut down the topic of conversation, to which Wolfgang is then seen replying 'ah that's ok'.

11th October 2025 Situation

By the afternoon I was already dissuaded from engaging sexually as I was tired and hungry waiting for him.

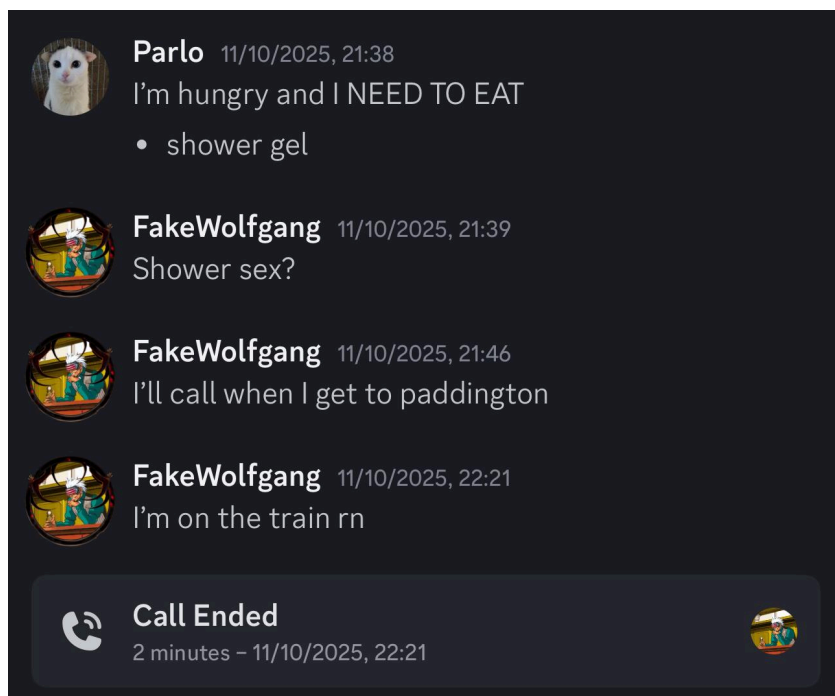

I was seen stating that I was still willing to engage [9:38pm] but that I wanted to make him finish as "quick as possible". He then replied when I wanted to do it, with me stating that I was hungry and I needed to eat, basically pushing the point that I wanted to get it over with.

When Wolfgang eventually arrived, which was about 10:50pm GMT, I was further dissuaded from wanting to engage sexually after seeing what he looked like IRL and the disparaging difference from his online pictures since his hygiene was not exactly the best. Wolfgang however immediately wanted sex since earlier I stated I would and I felt as if I was obliged to not upset him as I had a change in mind.

Wolfgang knew that I was extremely hungry and in these message logs I was seen asking how long it would be because I wanted the experience to be quick. Wolfgang was seen attempting to rush the situation before 12 so we could get pizzas after, which put stress on me to do it soon, with me still attempting to procrastinate telling him to; "give me a bit" [11:04pm]

As discerned by these messages I made it clear I was hungry and I dodged and disengaged from his advances of trying to pry for “shower sex”.

FakeWolfgang 11/10/2025, 23:27

What do we do about yxillo btw? I don't wanna have sex with him in the other room

Parlo 11/10/2025, 23:28

I know

We can do another time if you want

We can do it on the 4th / 3rd day maybe

FakeWolfgang 11/10/2025, 23:30

It's up to you, I'd rather tonight though

I can ask him to dip for a bit

During [11:27pm] I was already anxious and not wanting to engage, Wolf was attempting to get Yxillo to leave and I proposed another time, because I simply didn't want to have sex that day or in the foreseeable future.

*Wolfgang was then seen stating that it was “up to me” giving me the illusion of choice despite then following up with what HE wanted which was to do it tonight and before 12, to which I felt pressured and obligated to get it over with.

FakeWolfgang 11/10/2025, 23:30

It's up to you, I'd rather tonight though

I can ask him to dip for a bit

FakeWolfgang 11/10/2025, 23:00

As long as we can last I guess

If we are we should before 12 because that's when dominoes closes

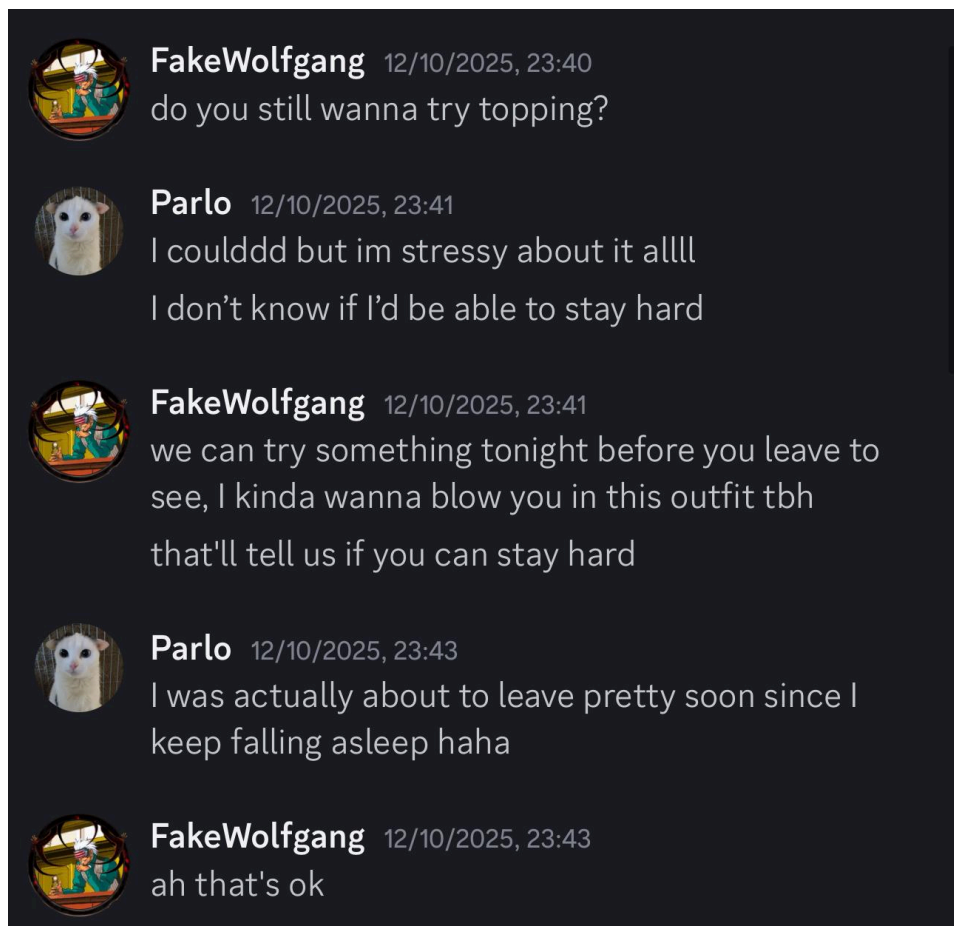

Wolfgang was extremely keen on doing anal with me being extremely conflicted on the proposition, Wolfgang opened one of the condoms out the packet, hastily attempting to take control of the situation, despite me in numerous intervals being extremely hesitant to do anal or let alone any sex in general because I was extremely reluctant, tired and hungry. He opened his condom however, showing that he wanted to engage in anal sex despite me making a multitude of excuses on why I really didn't, going over my stresses and anxiety and problems with anal. I do faintly remember consistently stating no. Instead I opted to do the bare minimum being oral to satisfy him because he openly told me he WANTED sex and I didn't want to upset him on his first day because I spent hundreds to see him and he spent hours to get here. What transpired was me being close to being sick numerous times and finishing him off with my hands as I was physically repulsed and wanted the situation to be over. He would ask if he wanted to film the situation, to which I declined. He appeared rather dissatisfied to which he then told me to use the purple glitter dildo he provided called the 'Cinderella', which when I inserted, hurt and was rather uncomfortable but I did regardless to just satisfy Wolfgang. Wolf also fingered me without my permission and it hurt and was extremely uncomfortable to which I abruptly used my body language to move.

The phallic object is censored on the top shelf, the condom ripped open from the wrapper is seen on the shelf corroborating the authenticity of the situation. He was willing to use it while I was visibly shaken and uncomfortable and was stating no. I offered to do it another time which was indicative of me not being willing to do it then and stalling.

12th October 2025

I made it clear I did not wish to have sex that day and dodged any advances Wolf tried to make both in person and in discord messages.

When I decided to leave earlier to avoid his consistent requests, he leaned in to try and kiss me to which I avoided just to hug him, then he attempted to re-correct the situation by then leaning in to kiss me once again to which I very uncomfortably “reciprocated” before leaving.

in regards to what actually happened, he put his hand on my thigh, put his arm around me, rubbed my back, laid on my lap, grabbed my hand on a couple different occasions, and leaned in for a kiss, all without asking and ignoring me not reciprocating. each time i physically reacted and, if we were around others, dmed him privately, nicely, to stop, because i had not agreed to any of the affection.

[Previous Allegation Levied against Wolfgang]

*In 2024 Anthrocon, Wolfgang was alleged to have been touchy with someone without their full expressed permission and leaned in to kiss them without their reciprocation and ignoring the red flags present. This bears striking similarities to my situation.

I was seen stating that I wasn't horny and making excuses as to why I didn't want to engage, he offered to walk me to the station, but after how uncomfortable I was, I chose to go myself.

13th October 2025 Situation Part 1

After Wolfgang was seen pushing me for him to perform oral sex on me while he was in his 'femboy clothes', I eventually obliged shyly. This was following him consistently messaging me to join him in his room, which made Yxillo uncomfortable as he was in the other room watching this happen. Yxillo then proceeded to leave.

The sex act was extremely uncomfortable and I essentially was laying very rigidly on the bed essentially frozen in place while also on my phone to try and break the tension of the situation and take my mind off of the discomfort and pain essentially attempting to kill time until it was eventually over. It was painful as I made it very obvious that I was extremely delicate and sensitive beforehand. I did not derive any sexual satisfaction and I remained completely soft to which Wolfgang made a comment about and acknowledged how timid and awkward I was.

When Wolfgang leaned over to kiss, I never engaged first, however I felt obligated to pretend 'reciprocate' as to not make the situation awkward, however I was greatly dissuaded due to his lack of personal hygiene.

I attempted to cuddle mainly as it was the bare minimum. Wolfgang then decided to take photos of us kissing, without my consent and then decided to send these photos to other people such as Cyan to brag about the situation behind my back.

He was seen bragging about kissing me the day prior to numerous mutuals and this was again done without my consent.

He never once informed me that he would be sharing these images to other people, thereby violating my privacy.

In these photos I looked disillusioned and had covered most of my face because I didn't really want to be photographed.

In the discord screenshot presented, Wolfgang was messaging me on discord about engaging and then stating to me while I was busy creating a document to; 'check what I sent you'. I sent the Pyrocynical document I was working on, to excuse why I was not reciprocating nor engaging, however Wolfgang did not pick up on this and proceeded to once again ask to 'come in here' to meet him. 10 minutes later after he asked in person to meet again, I obliged timidly to get the situation over with.

13th October 2025. - Shower Situation

Following the aforementioned incident, Yxillo returned and we all collectively planned to go to bars to socialise and to drink, Wolfgang hoped that Yxillo would not be returning back so after a couple of drinks that I would potentially have, we could 're-engage' in sexual intercourse.

Wolfgang was seen consistently pushing the idea of shower sex. Yxillo also attested since he was in the adjacent room, that I offered to have a shower first before Wolfgang, questioning who would go first, clearly pushing the motive that I did NOT want to share a shower with him nor engage sexually at the time following the prior incident.

Wolfgang was then seen entering the room regardless after me and entering not only the bathroom, but the shower itself while I washed myself. I did not make direct eye contact as I purposefully looked the other way as I was extremely uncomfortable and I got undressed very timidly. While I washed he offered to rub soap on my back.

As I quickly got ready to leave, I observed his shavings in the bathroom sink and he then asked me to rub soap on his back, which made me uncomfortable. When I left after the ordeal, Yxillo took notice of how unsettling the dynamic and situation was, and then left.

In all these instances, it was easy to decipher that I was uncomfortable, Yxillo was able to clearly discern this, however I tried to make light of the situation at the time because of how grossed out I felt, perhaps Wolfgang did not pick up on all the examples of this, however he rushed into the situation clearly only thinking about himself and personal desires.

Yxillo Situation

Yxillo was publicly known to have been 17 turning 18 on September 30th 2025, WolfGang knew his age. Yxillo was born on September 30th 2007.

Yxillo was seen counting down the days until his 18th birthday in a group chat which contained close mutuals and Wolfgang. Wolfgang also knew that this was Yxillo counting down until his birthday.

Wolfgang was publicly known to have been 21 at the time with him being born on 31st March 2004.

This means there is a 3 year 5 month 30 day age gap between them. [3.5 year age gap]

■ The age difference between the two is: 3 years 5 months 30 days.

As soon as Yxillo turned 18, 2 days later, Wolfgang proceeded to get sexual in his DMs, sending unsolicited nudes to which Yxillo felt forced to receive and compliment, as Wolf would bait for positive attention. Wolfgang also proposed to have a threeway at the AirBNB when we met, insinuating Yxillo to have been involved. When Yxillo asked for clarification, Wolf turned this into him being willing to engage and had then proceeded to tell me about it.

[Messages from 7th October 2025]

These messages took place only a week after Yxillo turned 18. Wolfgang was seen vehemently claiming that Yxillo was willing to engage, despite my reluctance to believe this entirely.

Wolfgang was seen throughout very early October showing Yxillo sexualised outfits he wanted to purchase 3 days after Yxillo turned 18. Wolfgang also hinted at showing Yxillo NSFW images only a week after he turned 18. These were all messages sent directly to Yxillo including an instance 8 days later where Wolfgang talks about his full body shave.

Wolfgang was seen making his sexual fantasies known in regards to Yxillo, stating how he wants to have sex with him. [7th October 2025]

*Wolfgang was seen creating a group chat called “Octoberfest” with me and Yxillo. This group chat was created to center around the idea of a ‘threeway’ between us. Wolfgang in this group chat posted unsolicited images pertaining to NSFW furry commissions he made and posted nudes of himself dressed up along with a picture of his penis and his dildo. This was 8 days after Yxillo turned 18. [October 7th 2025]

Wolfgang was speaking consistently about an apparent threeway planned for the October trip in front of Yxillo when he was still 17 in September, when Yxillo asked for further clarification once he turned 18 about if Wolf meant about a threeway INCLUDING him, Wolf took this as an example of Yxillo asking to participate and went around telling me and numerous other people about it.

Wolfgang was seen sharing this information with numerous YouTubers such as AceHowler and Sammuel without Yxillo's permission.

Wolfgang was then seen sharing private dms of me being sexual with him to numerous other mutuals and YouTubers without my permission.

Wolfgang was seeming to condition Yxillo into sexual based topics of discussion in preparation for him to turn 18, to which he would then escalate his behaviour.

On Monday 13th October, me and Yxillo went back to the AirBNB one last time to collect our belongings and equipment. Wolfgang was awoken by the door opening and asked us what was happening, to which Yxillo did not engage and I uncomfortably explained the situation. This was recorded.

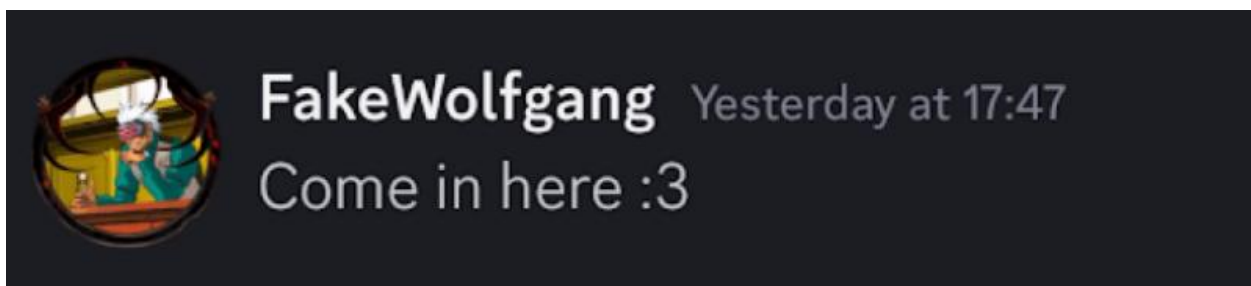

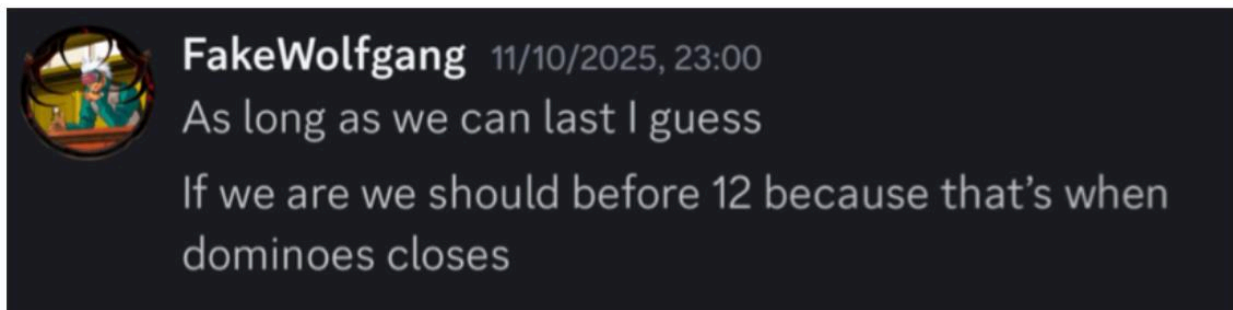

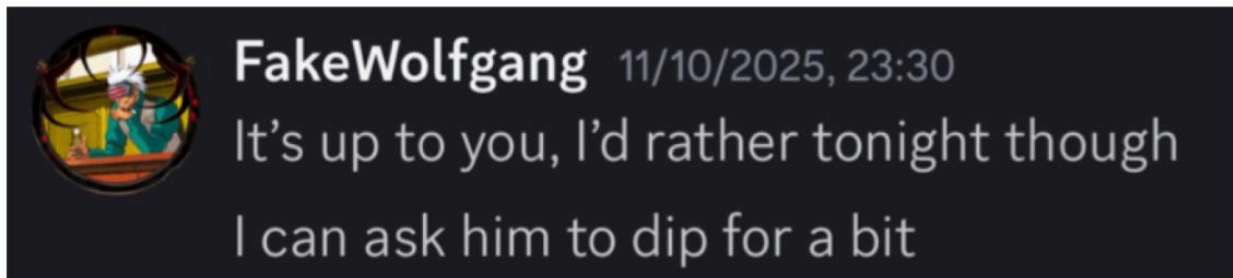

>>> 📁 Wolfgang.m4a <<<

Wolfgang was heard profusely crying and apologising stating I “could have just stated no” and that he “told me we didn’t have to do anything”.

[Wolfgang is seen making this exact same claim to someone else who accused him of improper conduct]
“you could have just said no”

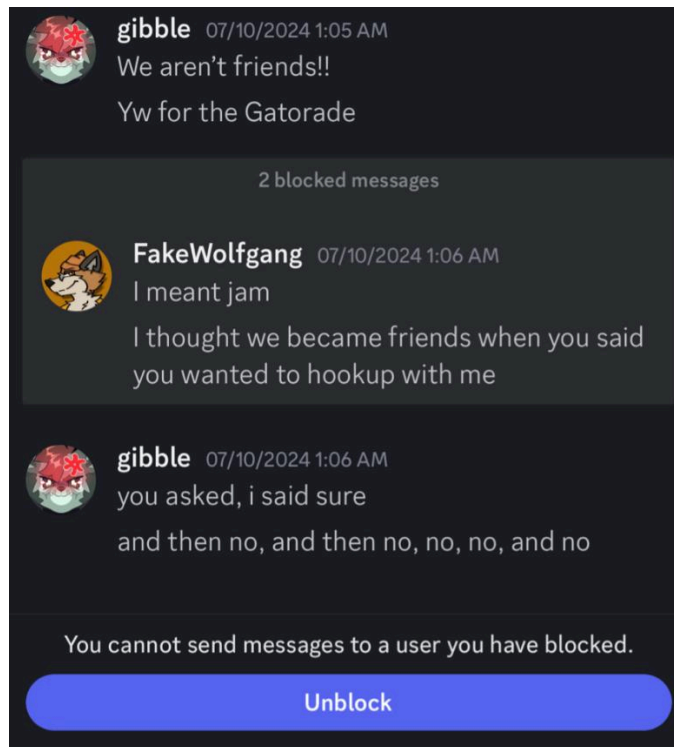

This is contrasted by the numerous statements he made where he pushed for sex at the times he would like, for example the 11th he stated he would “rather to do it” as soon as he came, stating for us to do it “before 12pm”, or his consistent messages asking for me to sexually engage with him on the 12th to come in his room on the 13th to which I eventually timidly obliged.

Wolfgang was heard apologising for the shower situation and not denying what I stated in regards to me asking if I could go in first, before he decided to come in with me regardless as he had fetishised and fantasised about the experience.

Wolfgang was heard corroborating the condom situation by claiming he stopped after I said no. This was him neglecting to mention the numerous excuses I made which led up to him disengaging including me stating no several times and that I was not comfortable doing it, he in the best case scenario somehow did not pick up on my body language or social cues clearly illustrating how stressed I was.

This bears striking similarities to the prior situation pertaining to Wolfgang where gibble is seen stating they agreed initially, as did I, and then they changed their mind and stated no repeatedly. In my case I was clearly stressed and made excuses for why I didn't want to do it, while I then said no numerous times.

Wolfgang stated in audio that he was sorry and didn't mean it. He was then seen in DMs with his mutuals stating that "he ruined everything". This is exactly what bennett stated in their call out tweet.

This artwork showed canine “knots” and the genitalia did not bear humanoid characteristics which is typically seen in anthropomorphic furry NSFW artwork.

Wolfgang is seen admitting to a close mutual that he is “trying to get me to cuddle in bed”. A blatant self admission that he was pushing me to conform to what he wanted. 6 hours later he is seen stating that he “fucked up”. In Wolfgang’s preemptive response document, he was seen attempting to excuse his consistent pushing as simply him going to the other room to have access to “electrical outlets”.

The reason as to why this is relevant is because he tried to say I peer pressured him in this instance since I was constantly walking in and out of the bedroom, he tried to say that this was me trying to like “allure” him or some shit, in reality the reason I was going in and out of the bedroom is that it had the only outlet in the airbnb where I could use my phone. There were 2 outlets in the living room and one in the bedroom, one of the entire outlets in the living room was being taken up by Parlo, and the other outlet had one socket that did not work and another socket being taken up by an extender.

wolfgang would come in and out of the bedroom pretty frequently, alot of the time prompted when we spoke to each other, he'd just kinda sit at the end of the sofa for a few minutes then say "i'm going to bed" and go back into that bedroom again and again... doing it multiple times and it got to a point where he flat out said something along the lines of "please come to bed with me", at that point i got weirded out and left the apt,

i suspected it him being pushy as you were very obviously blanking his advances/moves and his intent made ALOT more sense to me when i saw the whole byte message and stuff

Yxillo, who was present in the AirBNB at the time, also attests that Wolfgang was attempting to push me to engage with him in the bedroom, attesting that he* heard Wolfgang saying something on the lines of “please come to bed with me”, despite my blatant lack of reciprocation and my body language clearly showing how disengaged I was.

I was originally notified of Wolfgang attempting to make the situation public in the morning of the 8th, by a close friend and mutual friend who expressed how they were extremely distressed at how Wolfgang was essentially pressuring us to get in a call to discuss the situation, despite me being extremely uncomfortable.

8 November 2025

Parlo Yesterday at 10:44

I find it absolutely disgusting that you've been pushing and pressuring mutuals about the situation and you're instigating currently to make this matter a public "drama". The amount of stress you've been causing to my friends is absolutely disgusting and you know EXACTLY what you're doing. You're extremely entitled and it is showing very clearly. Not to mention the lies and misinformation you've been spreading behind the scenes about me, you're making strawman arguments and "debunking" them to make it seem as if I'm lying. I've made it clear we should split ways and just not engage with one another, yet you have this preconceived notion that it's my situation that has caused other people to be dissuaded from wanting to talk to you. It's not. I have all the evidence, testimony and chat logs. People don't want to speak to you for separate reasons, I will not speak for them though.

Parlo Yesterday at 11:08

You're not going to magically "salvage" the situation by getting preemptively ahead of the situation, people have a problem with you because of your disgusting conduct you exhibited outside irregardless to what you did to me. I already feel extremely uncomfortable even engaging in this, especially more so, I feel pressured to have this call because you've essentially threatened to make this a public matter through an extremely stressed and concerned mutual.

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 11:38

if that's the case then you should have zero issue with having this call today

if you have all this mountain of evidence about what happened in October then there should be ZERO issue

Parlo Yesterday at 14:00

You think my discomfort of speaking about the situation is somehow proof that I'm lying. You simply can't comprehend that I don't want to talk about the situation and I don't want to be reminded of it. And you pushing for the call doesn't make you look "good" optically. I think I distinctly remember what happened and my feelings and body language at the time

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:01

And so do I, and while you don't wanna talk about this situation, as yxillo and I discovered this is still being spread around, the more people who know about it the more likely it becomes public

So we can put this in the ground today and guarantee it doesn't or we can keep running around like headless chickens and wait for it to leak to the public

I am seen clearly highlighting why I was dissuaded from wanting to engage with him on call. I also express my unwillingness for this entire situation to become public. Wolfgang is seen stating in response that we could "put this [situation] in the ground today and guarantee it doesn't [become public]".

Parlo Yesterday at 14:04

Why are you gaslighting. You've literally been telling commentary YouTubers, acting like you're Buddy-Buddy with them, and that they have their "finger on the release button", paraphrased from what you said about it in calls. You've literally been talking to a few of them about the situation, which is the sole reason for why it is being "spread around". Everyone in private can attest that I just want to fucking move on from the incident and I don't want to be reminded of what happened.

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:07

I've talked to 3 people, you also talked to drama YouTubers, and yes I have been by some of them to just release this to the public, I want nothing more than to move on from this more than anything but the fact I keep hearing about it from more and more people makes me feel like this is nowhere even close to being possible

I have tried MULTIPLE times to move on from this, and it gets brought back up every time

I am seen attesting that once again, I do not want to be reminded of the incident and I just want to move on privately.

Wolfgang is seen stating that he wishes to "move on from this more than anything".

Wolfgang was attempting to leverage the excuse that people know about the situation and are spreading it, to preemptively get ahead of this, neglecting to process how it was HIMSELF who was talking and discussing about this situation to numerous Commentary YouTubers who are of course, going to discuss the situation privately.

05/11/2025, 17:22

He has a “friend” rn he is telling stuff, I say friend like that cuz he genuinely sees this person as a friend but I don’t think it’s reciprocated, but that “friend” of his is a friend of mine, hence how I found out

Yesterday at 02:36

like if u could guesstimate how many people what's the number at like 10-15?
like youtubers

Yesterday at 02:38

around 10 odd. apparently he was talking about the details in an open server call too but without mentioning parlos name 🙄

Yesterday at 02:38

not great not terrible was that open call recent?
like within the past weekish

Yesterday at 02:38

according to Himpleton it was last night lmao
he talked about it p blatantly in my vc
last night
just didn't say names
i think he's getting a lot more loose with it

Numerous testimonies from Commentary YouTubers in contact with Wolfgang who attest that he was openly speaking about the situation and alluding to what happened.

Parlo Yesterday at 14:08

“I want nothing more than to move on”. Why are you not being truthful, you were literally speaking in VC about the situation yesterday to TONS of YouTubers All which came to me and said you’re being OPEN with this which is a stupid idea

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:10

I am not being open, I talked to himpleton which I’ve done from the start, and yeah I haven’t mentioned you by name at all

And “you were speaking to tons of youtubers” it was me, himpleton who already knows, goatcatto, and aiden who it appears someone has already told

Parlo Yesterday at 14:10

They literally all know you’re directly referencing me, you are also now conceding to the fact you’re telling more people

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:10

No?

I absolutely didn't lmao

Not once did I say that

I alluded to himpleton the fact that stuff was happening

That was what I did

Parlo Yesterday at 14:12

"I want nothing more than to move on", "I am not being open" >> continues talking openly in VCs about the situation, after mind you, you promised Yxillo and others to not make this a shitfest which would affect everyone

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:12

And I said nothing that could even tangentially relate back to you guys, I said there is a call hopefully on the 14th without naming anyone, the fact that they knew is because other people are leaking shit parlo

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:15

And yeah I alluded to stuff happening with himpleton, I wasn't aware people like aiden and goatcatto already knew about the situation which is why I was as vague as possible

I didn't say names

Didn't mention specifics

Literally only said I had a call the other day, and another call is hopefully planned

That could be fucking 14 different situations

But someone has been leaking stuff so people like goatcatto, mrow, aiden

They know at the very least that something happened

Parlo Yesterday at 14:18

Why do you think my reluctance to join a call, invalidates my experience or makes me a liar especially with everything else I have to deal with right now

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:18

I have zero idea what you're dealing with right now

Parlo Yesterday at 14:19

You do know a considerable amount. You know exactly what kind of stuff I'm dealing with

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:19

And yeah I think it's weird to not wanna join a call when most people here have the stance that at the very least a misunderstanding happened

Parlo Yesterday at 14:19

Maybe not anything Post-Oct

Parlo You do know a considerable amount. You know exactly what kind of stuff I'm dealing with

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:19

I don't

I really don't

Parlo Yesterday at 14:19

You know about the arrest, strikes, financial position

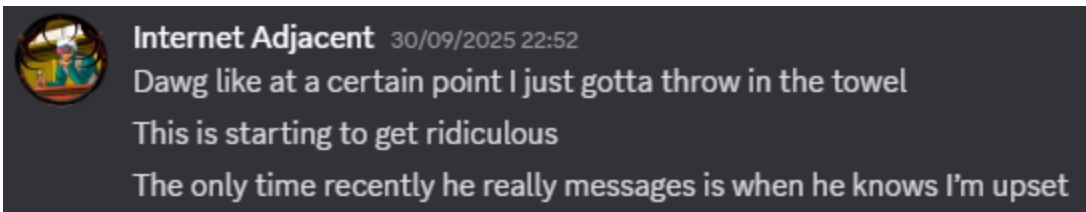

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:21

And rather than try to resolve one big stressful thing in both of our lives, especially after yxillo and artica BOTH said this just seems like a misunderstanding, you instead have ignored that and actually went on to try and slander me as a zoophile and invalidate MY mental health by saying I suicide bait

Dude I was in the fucking hospital weeks ago because of my deteriorating mental health, what on fucking earth are you talking about

And you were willing to publish that

Wolfgang is seen stating how I "ignored" his efforts of "resolving the stressful situation in both of our lives". He is seen stating that I attempted to "slander him as a zoophile". This is not true. My document does not claim that he is a zoophile at all, it only describes the nature of the images he posted, but stops short of making any definitive claim. Zoophilia was warned at the start of the document only as a trigger warning.

As corroborated in previous screenshots where Wolfgang was attempting to engineer a conversation with me posting images of himself at hospital to elicit a reaction, Wolfgang was seen mentioning to a mutual that he is upset about how I don't respond to him unless I know he is "upset".

[Suicide Baiting Example No.2]

The topic of Suicide Baiting is something attested by past mutuals of Wolfgang in the past, showing how there is a history of reoccurring behaviour.

FURS

14/10/2025, 01:32

So basically wolf and I got into a heated argument where we talked about supporting a controversial creator. He said something along the lines of the furry community is the worst to being a danger to minors as (18+ accounts not being private) I brought up that there is worse like straight loli and cp. I asked him if he's okay with those communities as he said that the furry community is the worst for this case. Ofc he said no (thank god) but then he decides to start accusing me of calling him a pedophile because of that hypothetical. We went on a back and forth, about it. I gave him a hypothetical and he called it an insinuation. Conversation ended with no conclusion and a comment of me saying "be careful around controversial creators"

Every month since then Instead of backing down, on end he would ask me to apologies for something that he thinks I said.

Basically after a few months of debating, he dmed me with an important cryptic message about an "expired date" I was busy that day and said we could talk for 10 minutes. He got all offended that I was only giving him 10 minutes and it ended with him still wanting me to apologize. Not just for me anymore but also for me and for my friends (friend were making really bad jokes about Wolfgang's odd questions he'd ask in calls). He wanted me to apologize for my friends so instead we all got in a call and talked it out.

I will admit the call was messy and right out of the gate I was pissed due to the pestering about an apologize he wasn't getting, and the attitude he gave me during the texts. I will take fault for being pissed. The whole argument was around an hour of yelling back and forth very messy. It ended with me just straight up telling him I was never his friend after the day of the argument. He revealed the expired date was his suicide pact for closure and we all told him that suicide is never an answer. It ended with him saying he only wanted to talk to me and not my "hype men" and he left call. We all blocked him after that.

The aftermath was a few people joining call to tell us Wolfgang was at a hardware store looking for a hose to kill himself with. I haven't actually listened to the audio that someone captured because I found it too disturbing. (edited)

The thing is the user that recorded the audio was in a 1 on 1 call
I don't want them being dragged into it
That's what I'm afraid of BLUE is seen sharing audio of Wolfgang allegedly suicide baiting, to which BYTE is seen highlighting how disgusting it was for him to leverage and threaten suicide as a means to ruin other people's lives and to traumatise them.

Parlo Yesterday at 14:22

Art sexualising anatomically correct genitalia depicting knotted canine dog cock is inherently zoophilic, I mean come on man.

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:22

Dude I could go to the store and buy a dildo shaped like that rn

I mean fucking bad dragon exists

Parlo Yesterday at 14:22

There is a distinct difference between anthropomorphic furry art with humanoid genitalia and furry art depicting anatomically correct canine cock

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:23

Hell [redacted] and [redacted] wanna create a website JUST LIKE bad dragon

Are they zoophiles?

Internet Adjacent I mean fucking bad dragon exists

Parlo Yesterday at 14:23

That is NOT a good defence since Bad Dragon is owned and operated by a pedophile zoophile who has cast animal sexual reproductive organs

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:24

That's actually not true but even apart from that, that's what [redacted] and [redacted] wanna try and do

Parlo Yesterday at 14:24

Casting sex toys based on horse cock, feline cock, and dog cock is inherently a red flag

Internet Adjacent That's actually not true but even apart from that, that's what [redacted] and [redacted] wanna try a...

Parlo Yesterday at 14:24

I don't know what they want to do, but [redacted] says it's not true.

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:24

If you think it's weird that's fine but it's not zoophilia

Parlo Yesterday at 14:24

All I know is that art is concerning

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:25

Like inherently if you think it's zoophilia you have a fundamental misunderstanding of how that shit works

Parlo I was confused on why you'd be fine commissioning an image like that, but call out others for ...

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:27

You actually just have a fundamental misunderstanding of how that works

Parlo Yesterday at 14:27

I was dissuaded from engaging in sexual based conversations with you when you posted it

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:28

Big difference between a depiction of a 4 legged dog getting fucked and an anthro furry with specifically shaped genitalia lmao

Parlo Yesterday at 14:28

Even if you "didn't ask for it", you still commissioned it did you not

I mean you could have simply not asked for it

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:28

Genuinely you cannot be serious with this lmao 🤔

This is NOT the point you think it is

Internet Adjacent Genuinely you cannot be serious with this lmao 🤔

Parlo Yesterday at 14:29

Dude it's sexual art depicting animal genitalia, it is fundamentally weird

Internet Adjacent [redacted] has commissions similar to mine

Parlo Yesterday at 14:29

Why are we talking about other people
Like this isn't a good response strategy

Parlo Dude it's sexual art depicting animal genitalia, it is fundamentally weird

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:30

Weird is different from zoophilia
Like your justified if you think it's weird
But your accusing me of a crime
Big difference

Parlo Yesterday at 14:30

No I'm not, you're creating a strawman argument
I said the art is inherently zoophilic and using bad dragon is NOT a good defence

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:32

Your trying to accuse me of being one of the worst things possible very falsely

Like laughably falsely

Parlo Yesterday at 14:33

There are numerous commissioned art pieces like that, you cannot just utilise the plausible deniability card, why don't you see a problem with that kind of artwork

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:33

I don't need a fucking plausible deniability care because it's not zoophilia lmao

Your reasoning fucking sucks

And it wouldn't hold up lmao

Parlo Yesterday at 14:35

What can one possibly say to try and justify that type of content

I'm asking because I'm curious

I mean you called creators out who engage with content down that pipeline

So it's pretty shocking to see art being commissioned of that stature

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:36

I call creators out for getting art of dogs getting fucked

This is not that

Parlo Yesterday at 14:36

Please read what I said again

“Content down the pipeline”

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:37

There’s a massive difference between what I call out and this lol

Parlo Yesterday at 14:38

Are you meaning to only tell me, that the only problem is derived from the quadrupedal animalistic creatures in a sexual position, and not their genitalia which is also being depicted (edited)

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:39

I think if you get art of a human with a penis like that then I see no issue

Parlo Yesterday at 14:39

Penis like what

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:39

A knot penis

Parlo Yesterday at 14:40

Why do you not see a problem in that I mean you can't deny people are going to be sexualising MAINLY that organ

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:40

Because there isn't a problem with it lmao

Parlo Yesterday at 14:40

And deriving sexual satisfaction from that

Internet Adjacent Because there isn't a problem with it lmao

Parlo Yesterday at 14:41

It's literally canine genitalia is it not

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:41

And is it attached to a feral quadrupedal dog?

Parlo Yesterday at 14:42

Why must the sexualisation of animalistic sexual reproductive organs be normalised or defended
Why can't you just simply disavow it
I mean the majority of people aren't going to be defending that kind of stuff

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:43

You can make that argument with furies in general
Why are people sexualizing characters that have animal characteristics

Parlo Yesterday at 14:45

I think there is a major difference between anthropomorphic characters and anatomically correct canine cocks

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:45

But these furry characters are anatomically correct, they have tails and muzzles and dog ears

Parlo Yesterday at 14:46

I think you know what parts of the art is going to be specifically sexualised.

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:46

People sexualize muzzles lmao
They make fleshlights of muzzles
Is that zoophilic?

Wolfgang is seen attempting to deflect the topic to his close mutuals, while also using the animal cast dildo manufacturers; Bad Dragon as a defense, normalising the behaviour and claiming that consuming artwork sexualising canine genitalia is “not a problem”.

Parlo Yesterday at 14:46

We can argue semantical theoreticals for ages to jump around the subject, but I think you know that the art is not morally acceptable

The furry community is not some community you can base moral subjectivity on

Lmao the community is known pretty well for how much of a mess it is

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:47

Why are you ignoring the direct one to one comparison?

Parlo Yesterday at 14:47

And furries in general will still have a problem with that kind of content

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:47

No they don't?

Internet Adjacent Why are you ignoring the direct one to one comparison?

Parlo Yesterday at 14:48

muzzles =\ knots

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:48

They fucking absolutely do not lmao

Parlo Yesterday at 14:48

They do.

Parlo muzzles =\ knots

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:48

But both are anatomically accurate parts of animals that furries sexualize

Parlo Yesterday at 14:48

How can a muzzle be anatomical, it's an accessory and an item

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:49

A dog knot is a part of a dog but a muzzle is an accessory?

Parlo Yesterday at 14:49

You cannot be unironically comparing and conflating two COMPLETELY separate things

Internet Adjacent A dog knot is a part of a dog but a muzzle is an accessory?

Parlo Yesterday at 14:49

Do you know what anatomical means

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 14:49

They're not completely separate lmao

It's like a direct one to one comparison

You are so hung up on easily the worst point you tried to make

Parlo Yesterday at 14:53

How is it the worst point, like objectively you have not provided any good defence or rebuttal

Like how hard is it to simply disavow content like that

All I've seen in all honesty, is you go, [redacted] and [redacted] do the same thing", with [redacted] literally saying it's not true at all

Parlo Yesterday at 15:01

█████ said it was not truthful
And it lacked context

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:01

And █████ is saying it is

Listen, I do not want this public just like I know you don't, not only would this destroy one of our careers but it's insanely embarrassing
For both of us
Am I wrong?

Parlo Yesterday at 15:03

Why were you boasting that if it came out you'd serve to lose nothing and I would be "destroyed"

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:03

Because in my eyes that's how it would be
You made an uncredited allegation when all the evidence goes against you, and while you disagree either the zoophilia claim the general public would find that accusation dumb

Wolfgang was seen continuing to defend the artwork as well as getting into a semantic based argument to attempt to justify it. He also attempted to once again deflect the situation onto mutuals and close friends [PINK & GREEN], despite them claiming that he is openly lying about them.

Wolfgang was then seen once again stating that; "I do not want this public like I know you don't".

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:03

Because in my eyes that's how it would be
You made an uncredited allegation when all the evidence goes against you, and while you disagree either the zoophilia claim the general public would find that accusation dumb

Parlo Yesterday at 15:05

None of that is true.

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:05

It is though lmao

And you can agree or disagree but the fact of the matter is that we would both have to publicly fight over it in front of all these creators

Parlo Yesterday at 15:05

You were even maligning me in private trying to twist the situation to a rape allegation, you were making a strawman argument and attempting to preemptively shoot it down, to make me look like a malicious liar

Parlo You were even maligning me in private trying to twist the situation to a rape allegation, you were making a...

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:06

I do believe you are malicious and from what everyone has told me that's what this allegation sums down to

I heard gwamgo called it that

Parlo Yesterday at 15:06

The document which serves to be the only written claims I've made, never called you a zoophile either, it had zoophilia as a trigger warning, but it only describes the images

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:06

So you may not have put the accusations into words but other people have and other people will

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:08

Just like I've received jokes for treating you like anything but a lolcow

And I have not tried to preemptively shoot anything down, I have tried to resolve this in private

Have I been too chatty at times? Yeah, which I've apologized to [REDACTED] for

But like I said, if this does go public it becomes a blood sports match between you and I, do you agree? (edited)

Parlo Yesterday at 15:10

You're the only one from what it seems to literally everyone I've spoke to, that wants it to become public

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:10

Yes because this is massively impacting my life

Parlo Yesterday at 15:10

You literally threatened to [REDACTED] that you will make it public unless you have a call in 24 hours

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:11

That's not a threat, that's my tired of the bullshit and the false accusations lmao

Parlo Yesterday at 15:11

I have not falsely accused you anywhere

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:11

"We're gonna have a call or else I publicize all the false claims you've been making about me" not a threat lmao

Despite Wolfgang on numerous occasions stating he wishes this to remain private and for it to be sorted out behind closed doors, is then seen contradicting himself stating that he does want it to become public. Wolfgang is then seen stating that he was not pressuring or threatening GREEN into a call by stating if he declined, he would make the situation public, causing him to start panicking in my messages.

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:15

Do you wanna hop on call with me and [redacted]

Parlo No it was genuinely horrible and commentary people agreed in private

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:15

So I'm not the only person talking to commentary people huh?

Parlo Yesterday at 15:15

I've been out with friends getting drunk and I come to see in my DMs that [redacted] is panicking because of the shit you're saying to him

Internet Adjacent So I'm not the only person talking to commentary people huh?

Parlo Yesterday at 15:15

The 2 people you spoke to first came to me
Umm yes because you were leaking this shit to everyone

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:16

4 people

i talked to 4 people lol

Parlo I've been out with friends getting drunk and I come to see in my DMs that [REDACTED] panicking because of...

Parlo Yesterday at 15:16

I want to see if he is alright and I'm certainly not in the right headspace to talk about anything in call I don't feel well and I have a hangover right now

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:16

Alright

Parlo Yesterday at 15:17

You're adding onto that stress right now with the constant prodding

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:17

Yeah because I want to never hear of this situation again

Parlo Yesterday at 15:17

If this became public, everyone's lives are going to get so fucking needlessly shittier

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:17

This should've been resolved a month ago
That we can agree on
Which is why I'm here to have this convo

Wolfgang was seen offering to call me, to which I declined as I did not feel well after having a hangover and that I already felt panicked, stressed and uncomfortable. Wolfgang was seen acknowledging this and even agreeing that if the situation became public, it would benefit no one. Wolfgang was seen stating that he “never wants to hear of this situation again”, yet has gone around to many Commentary YouTubers discussing the nature of the situation, as well as having made and released a preemptive google document attempting to get ahead of the situation.

Internet Adjacent Yesterday at 15:19

My point is to actually mitigate this becoming public, and say that I have zero intention of talking about this at all going forward

Internet Adjacent was seen consistently lying about him wanting to keep the situation private. His message after our conversation to Himpleton showed that he fully acknowledged that we were both going to remain private about this extremely personal and serious situation.

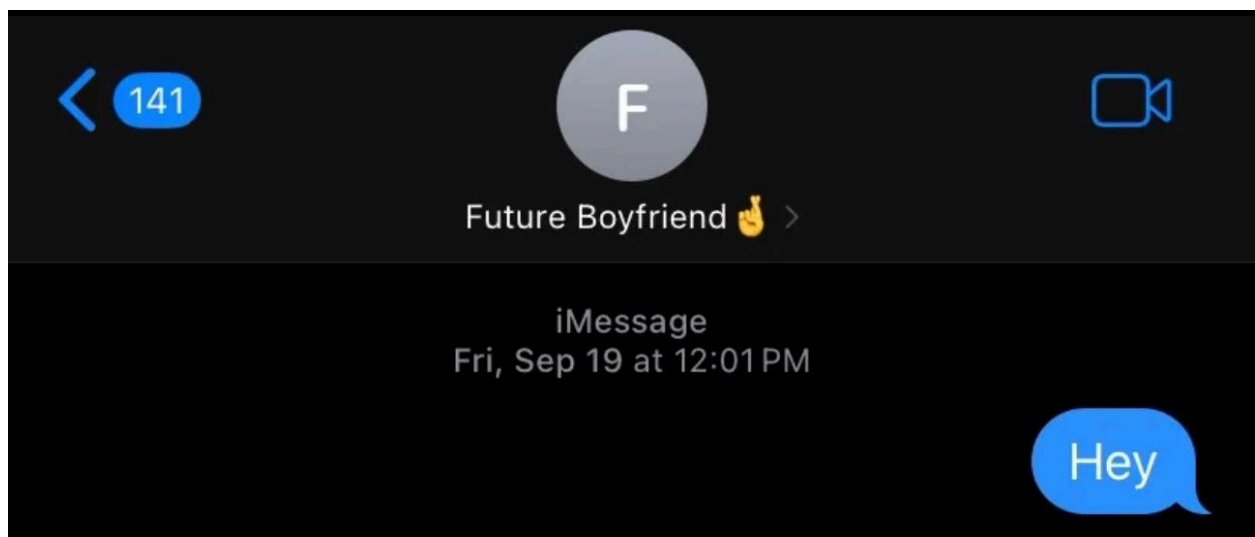

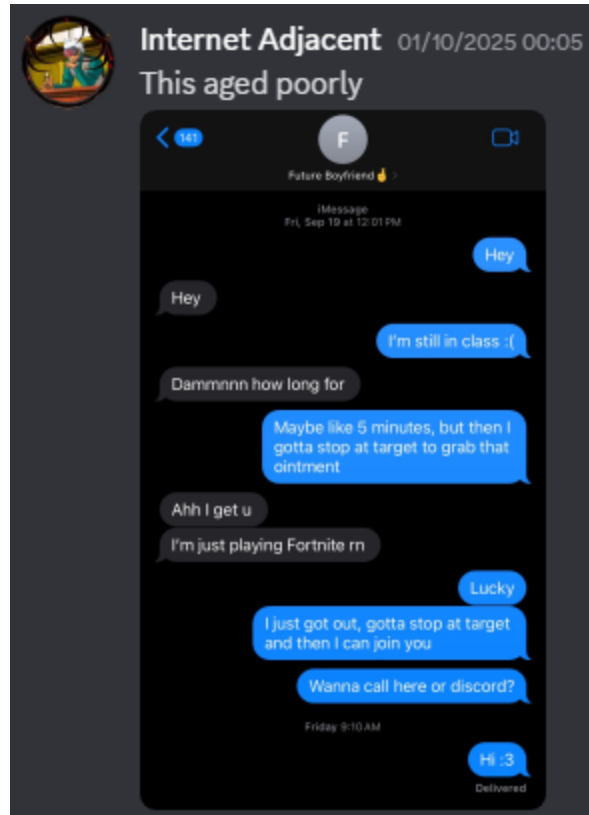

Him ↩ HIM 22:39

parlo?
how are you proceeding>
*?

Internet Adjacent 22:42

He is still willing to publicly lie about me if I go public, so in order for everyone to avoid that headache we made some sort of agreement to both never speak of this situation again

Internet Adjacent being seen having my contact saved as “Future Boyfriend”, this is despite my hesitancy towards any relationship before we ever met. He rushed into what he perceived to be a relationship with me, despite me making it clear that I wanted boundaries before anything like that happened.

Internet Adjacent 09/08/2025 20:33
I have no idea how but I think I got chlamydia again

Sparr 09/08/2025 20:34
oh shit
get ur bloods back?

Internet Adjacent 09/08/2025 20:35
Nah, I don't get tested till the 7th
But you remember that femboy I told you about?

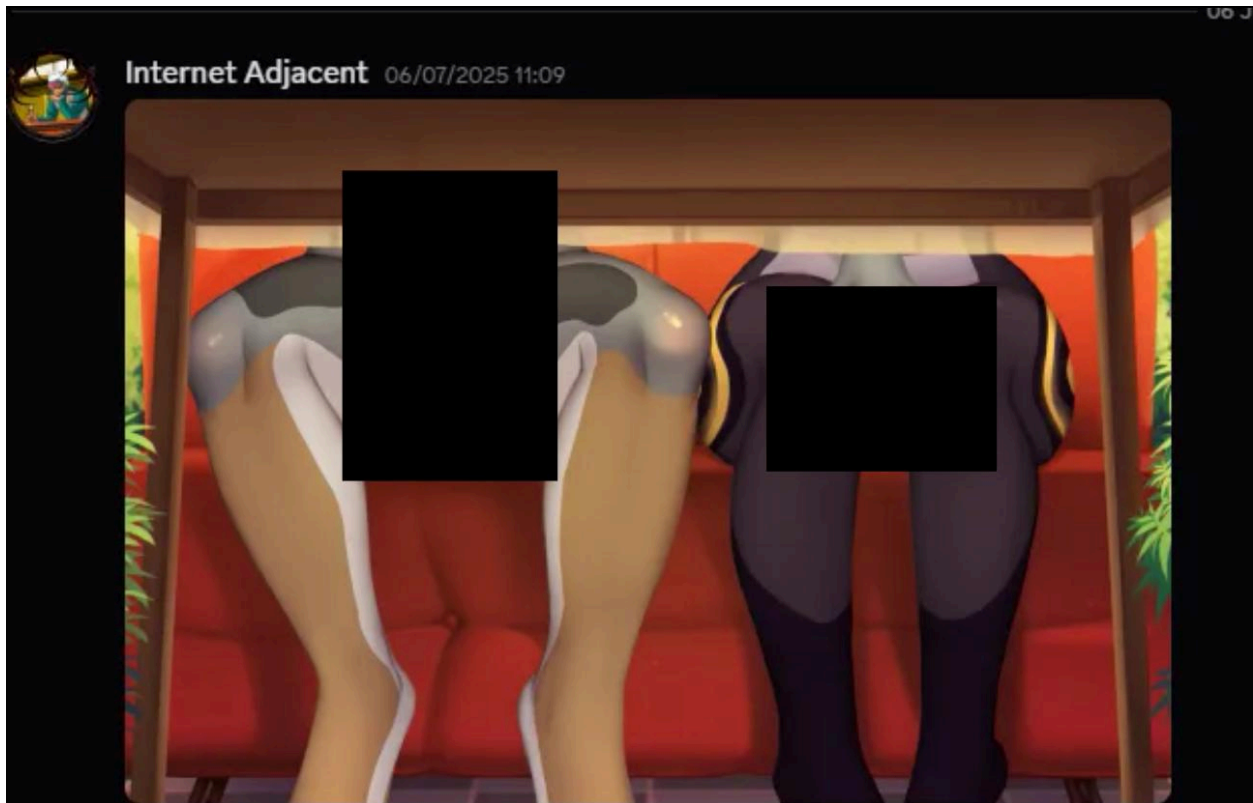

Sparr 09/08/2025 20:37
oh yeah

Internet Adjacent 09/08/2025 20:41
He said something about how he may have got an std a while ago and he's been ghosting me since
Because since I cured mine, I have only had sex with him

*Wolfgang is seen mentioning how he has another STD scare to his mutual friend, fearing that he has contracted chlamydia for a second time.
He did not disclose his history of STD's with me before engaging in intercourse with me, this lack of basic transparency makes me extremely sickened and stressed.*

Wolfgang sending more examples of unsolicited pornography with canine genitalia to mutuals of his [CYAN]

This document has not gone public, it will only become public if Wolfgang instigates the situation and makes it public to preemptively get ahead of the situation. - 16th October 2025

This document has been made public after Wolfgang has attempted to make a preemptive Google document, insulting me, maligning me, obfuscating key information and lying about me.

- 9th November 2025

Wolfgang's current pattern of behaviour seems to be attempting to bring up unrelated situations to deflect the topic of conversation and to use as ad hominem.
