Description:

This variant showcases the basic and most common features of a gentile. The expression of this variant remains neutral. Nothing special about this image makes it even more accurate. The goyim are not unique, they are common. You see this face everyday, that is why this variant is unique. It pokes at the actual goyim, and not a specific group of it. This variant shows us how they lack unique thoughts, and how their minds are always influenced by their pleasures. A goy's mind doesn't think, only follows his pleasures. They will always be slaves, they will never be free. They are being fed poison and yet they ask for more. Only an animal will act that way, hence why the goyim are not people.

This is why when you see this variant, nothing special is shown, he just exists. That is the true nature of the goyim.
