

Soyjak	Name	Known for	Term	Owner
	Split ## Admin	Being the first Stoppy admin during one it's first and arguably best era as it was the most stable under his tenure. Introduced rizz to the Stoppy. Reigned when the culture was full of strictly Soyjaks, OC and Raiding. Being a competent dev and admin for the most part, would continue to serve as a dev for while. Became slowly more inactive in his reign due to demotivation. After he stopped developing for the Stoppy, he would disappear from all Soysphere websites. He was last seen 10 months after he retired.	January 22, 2024 to May 16, 2024 (In total: 115 days)	Split
	Aureus ## Manager	A janny who was trusted by Split to become the manager. He notably was on the opposite side of the world from Split, so if Split wasn't on he would be on and vice versa. Some Stoppy 'teens think that he would be Admin Thrembo if he ever becomes admin of soyjak.party. Claims to have no life outside of soyjaks. Not much is known about him.	March 5, 2024 to May 18, 2024 (In total: 74 days)
	c6c7 ## TempAdmin	Split went on vacation for the first half of April, and let an anonymous janny known as c6c7 on the ban logs take control for the time period. His administration style was extremely similar to Split, to the point people theorized that he was just him on an alt. After Split came back from vacation, he would go back to becoming a normal janny. It is rumored that he has recently returned to the Stoppy.	April 3, 2024 to April 14, 2024 (In total: 11 days)
	The Teenumvirate (Gapejak ## Admin Plier ## Admin, Soyprano ## Admin)	A trio of 'teens that became admin of the Stoppy due to Split not wanting to become admin again. Was supposed to own it but Split still held onto the domain and servers. Was so awful at their jobs that it caused the jannies to revolt against them until they were forced to leave. Notably, these are the mistakes of each one Soyteen 1, the manager would often squabble with the community, never listening to them and often doing changes without even consulting the 2 other 'teens. Soyteen 2 was the new developer, but was a dirty vibecoder at that too. He had a contact mail that he never responded to, and almost never talked. Soyteen 3 was VERY norulescucked, attracting all the wrong people to the website. Overall, the administration of these three soyteens was EXTREMELY unstable, with one rarely ever agreeing with the others.	May 16, 2024 to May 20, 2024 (In total: 5 days) superjanny ## Admin	Prominent turbo norulescuck. The most norulescucked admin of the Stoppy's history, even more than Soyteen 3. This turned it into a very degenerate community. Led to content that would have got your IP instantly leaked on Split-era Stoppy being allowed on /b/ for a short time, until the staff pressured him to stop it. Would be replaced by Note shortly after as he started to spiral, becoming more deranged. Would crawl back in late 2024 trying to get back into the staff team to help with development. Was behind the original Stoppy domain redirecting to a hostile site for a small time when it was sold. Possibly might've ended up becoming a later on dev for another hostile splinter.	May 20, 2024 to June 12, 2024 (In total: 23 days)	superjanny cr1mson ## Manager	The first manager during Superjanny's reign, was very bad at his job. Xe would often ban users for almost to no reason at all, usually people who complained about him. Was the leader of a baitcord which was built to rile up the community into mass outrage. Would later be removed by superjanny due to a mass exposal.	May 20, 2024 to June 1, 2024 (In total: 12 days)
	Null ## Manager	Not the same one from Kiwi Farms, don't worry about it. The second manager during Superjanny's reign, was okay as a manager. However, he would rarely respond to emails from 'teens, and would rarely ever read the /suggest/ board. He was the janny who helped the most in pressuring superjanny to undo his extremely norulescucked changes.	June 1, 2024 to June 12, 2024 (In total: 11 days)

	Note ## Admin	The maintainer of the Vichan fork used for the Stoppy and would test updates on it on there. Owned the Soyjaks.info (stoppy wiki), where he would make a bunch of literal whos jannies. Would reign over the Stoppy at it's height of popularity, with PPH day taking place, where the Stoppy would reach 2000 PPH. Had a short conflict with Soyjak Party itself after he took control of the Stoppy and started being more aggressive towards them. However this would lead to his downfall as he wasn't able to take the retaliation from Sharty jannies eventually becoming too demoralized to keep doing his job because he was threatened with a ban on the sharty. He'd step down after being unable to control his jannies and would be convinced by Warlock to hold an election for a successor.	June 12, 2024 to September 13, 2024 (In total: 94 days)	Note
	WARLOCK ## Admin	Would make himself co-admin due to Note's mental state. Unbanned gore and tried to reverse the effects of the /qa/ merge. Planned with Rev to create The Election so that Note would be forced to retire without making undesirables admin, which eventually failed.	August 15, 2024 to September 13, 2024 (In total: 30 days)
	Codeson ## Dev	Served as admin after being hired as developer. Attempted to win in The Election with SNCA Enthusiast but would lose to Flux and Markspace. Resigned because he couldn't defend himself after some discord drama. Sad!	August 28, 2024 to September 17, 2024 (In total: 21 days)	Note to Flux
	Solaris ## Manager	Was hired as manager under Warlock. While he didn't do much, he is regarded as gemmy by some Stoppy 'teens. After the site was handed from Note to Flux, he would get scared and disappear. Flux forgot to demote him, so his janny account remained for about 13 more days before it was removed.	August 29, 2024 to September 26, 2024 (In total: 28 days)
	Rev ## Manager	vibecoder, dataminer and gooner award Was a frequent Cytube hoster and was publicly a manager for the time he was on the site, but actually was an admin. Helped Warlock plan out the election, and getting Note to step down. Would serve as a "developer" as well. Broke the urgent report button, possibly on purpose. Would end up disappearing randomly. According to one user he downloaded the entire Stoppy's database for NSFW.	September 5, 2024 to October 26, 2024 (In total: 52 days)
	Flux ## Admin	Ran alongside Markspace in the Stoppy's election. Created OC for the site in the past, mostly about Kuz (from the sharty) and MGE edits. Estonian who really wanted to be Russian, sometimes called The Not Russian. Apparently really tech illiterate, had to be instructed by Note on how to get the server up and running.	September 13, 2024 to January 6, 2025 (In total: 115 days)	Flux markspace ## Admin	Ran alongside Flux in the Stoppy election. Was a popular drawtoilet who made a lot of OC for the Sharty and the Stoppy. Despite being admin he didn't particularly do much of anything with his powers.	September 13, 2024 to January 6, 2025 (In total: 115 days)

Soyjak	Name	Known for	Term	Owner
	Chud ## Developer	Only 2 days after Flux and markspace came into power, they would hire an anonymous developer. Nothing is known about them.	September 15, 2024 to January 6, 2025 (In total: 113 days)	SNCA Enthusiast
	SNCA Enthusiast ## Admin	Co-admin along with Warlock in an attempt to stabilize the site after the devastation of morale after full on DDoS attacks on the Stoppy. He helped set up the Stoppy's second wiki and bunker, the wiki due to the first one being lost to time, and the second not existing in the first place Tried to make a Stoppy splinter called The Storgy after he was demoted, but it was dead on arrival. Would go on to create a hostile splinter.	January 6, 2025 to January 22, 2025 (In total: 16 days)
	WARLOCK ## Admin	Would become co-admin again so he could keep SNCA Enthusiast in line. Tried to rehire jannies since most of Flux's staff had left aside from himself and markspace. Would help convince SNCA Enthusiast to step down as to prevent the Stoppy from spiraling further. Despite this the Stoppy wouldn't last too long afterwards.	January 6, 2025 to January 22, 2025 (In total: 16 days)
	Fishjak ## Developer	Nophono developer with nothing to say.	January 6, 2025 to January 22, 2025 (In total: 16 days)
	markspace ## Manager	Would return as manager after he was asked to come back. Said that he hated working under SNCA Enthusiast, which was why he got right out of here.	January 8, 2025 to January 11, 2025 (In total: 3 days)
	HWABAG ## Manager	After markspace left pointing a middle finger at SNCA Enthusiast, he would hire a literal who janny as the nu-manager. His very short reign was a nothingburger.	January 11, 2025 to January 18, 2025 (In total: 7 days)
	Citrus ## Manager	At this point, SNCA Enthusiast and Warlock were desperate to find a manager. Another literal who janny, he was a Frootist who was a former janny of soyjak.party who went rogue. Leaked a bunch of sharty janny stuff that is now lost to time.	January 18, 2025 to January 22, 2025 (In total: 4 days)

	Flux ## Admin	Had to be reinstated despite not really wanting to be admin again After the servers were handed back to him, would hire someone named Violet to be developer. Would shut the site down due to demoralization after the SNCA Enthusiast drama and DDoSing.	January 22, 2025 to January 31, 2025 (In total: 9 days)	Flux
	Anarchy	Due to the Stoppy's shutdown and the domain being sold, there would be a brief period of people having to migrate to using multiple other sites.	January 31, 2025 to February 18, 2025 (In total: 18 days)	None
	Violet ## Operator	Brought the Stoppy back due to her missing it. Was a big proponent of the /qa/ merge so she could keep larping as a 4chan oldass. Later approved permanently keeping the /qa/ merge in place. Wasn't able to actually code and relied heavily on vibecoding or stealing reusing code to develop the Stoppy Would shut down the Stoppy after staff shortages, and the site becoming more and more dead. Sad!	February 18, 2025 to August 30, 2025 (In total: 192 days)	Violet
	Anarchy	Supposed to be the final shutdown, however (You) know that's not true. Most Stoppy posters would start moving onto unofficial bunkers or into telegram group chats.	September 1, 2025 to October 9, 2025 (In total: 39 days)	None
	WARLOCK ## Admin	Brought the Stoppy back just because the users REALLY wanted it back. He basically had no realistic plans on what to do with the site especially since the staff team was already gutted with only 2 jannies available. Didn't make Flux aware of the revival until it was already up (you can guess how that went).	October 9, 2025 to October 11, 2025 (In total: 2 days)	Warlock
	Anarchy	Another shutdown as a result of Flux being displeased with the Stoppy coming back up, wanting it to be gone for good this time.	October 11, 2025 to October 27, 2025 (In total: 16 days)	None
	Chud ## Admin	Anonymous user who nophono cared fan about who tried bringing it back up but on his own server It got instantly fucked over because he was dumb enough to host the site on his actual IP address. The anonymous admin quickly shut it down again after a single day, being unable to stop the DDoS attack and spamming.	October 27, 2025 to October 28, 2025 (In total: 1 day)	Anonymous

	Anarchy	The FOURTH shutdown to happen and the longest in the Stoppy's history, as a result of this splinters of the Stoppy began to form as a result of the absence, such as the Stwoppy.	October 28, 2025 to January 6, 2026 (In total: 70 days)	None
	Tourmaline ## Admin	A random nametoilet managed to get a new domain for the site after getting back the 5 jannies that were left. Would have a horrible start for the revival as he was asleep for most of the first day which caused alot of chaos. FINALLY implementing post approval onto the Stoppy, with help from some user providing the code. Said that he was genuinely surprised at how long he managed to keep the site up. Began a persecution against Stwoppy's users, which would harm the Stoppy's activity due to cross-site posters leaving.	January 6, 2026 to April 3, 2026 (In total: 87 days)	Tourmaline
	Feldspar ## Manager	Was one of the few on the Stoppy's staff that wanted to bring it back. Used the Sharty while the Stoppy was down. Said to be the best manager ever.	January 9, 2026 to April 3, 2026 (In total: 84 days)
	Nepheline ## Developer	A rather mysterious developer who did not talk much.	unknown, 2026 to April 3, 2026 (In total: ??? days)
	Anarchy	The FIFTH and most current shutdown period which saw the stoppy's userbase become even more fractured as they either quit the sphere or were absorbed by other splinters.	April 3, 2026 to June 5, 2026 (In total: 63 days)	None
	Null ## Admin	In a HUGE surprise, former manager Null returned to become the owner of the Stoppy. Pushed for the Stoppy to re-enter the soysphere via unmerging /qa/ and /soy/ and making the latter the main board. Wasn't publicly known to be admin until a week or two in. Because of that people thought someone unknown brought it back up ironically. Will soon hire his own manager "when he finds a viable guy". He has likely done this now.	June 5, 2026 to Present
	SYSOP ## Admin	The stoppysphere-wide manager and dev that Null hired, there is yet to be anything known about him. Null says he'll make a QNA later. Was part of Null's janny team from day one. Doesn't prefer to be a nametoilet, often preferring "Sysop". Sys0p on the wiki.	July 17, 2026 to Present

	aalleexx ## Admin	The manager of the Stoppy, is a late Split-era super oldass. Was 23be during Split and Superjanny eras. Has left and returned many times. Self-inserts as Anton Chigurh from No Country For Old Men.	August 1, 2026 to Present	Null
	Heinrich ## Admin	Manager of JakBooru, a SoyBooru splinter which Null has allied with and made part of the Stoppy. Recently joined the main site after he was invited. Currently moderating both the Stoppy and JakBooru.	August 8, 2026 to Present
	Cobgang ## Admin	Manager of The Stoppy Wiki. Known for being VERY anti-censorship. Famous for keeping the wiki up through three different Stoppocalypses. Doesn't have a favorite owner.	August 13, 2026 to Present
