

Nitrolord

Lies, Deceit, and Degeneracy

The Apology

By now, most of you have seen Nitrolord's apology video titled "Shining Some Light on the Lorebnuuy Situation" (which they chose to post on an alternate youtube channel rather than their main.) They talk about how they had made the @Lorebnuuy Twitter account, which they had linked to their main for a while before unlinking it, wherein they posted the things that were subject of criticism during his last exposal period. However, this apology was heavily flawed, due to the fact that it was composed of lies, which I plan to expose later in this document.

The apology omitted many things, such as the fact that they neglected to mention they followed at least 7 minors on the account.

They ALSO forgot to mention the fact that they liked some suggestive and risque tweets on their MAIN twitter account.

They said that they wouldn't do this type of thing again, and that they barely use twitter anymore, but of course, that was not the case.

LoreTheBun and the Party

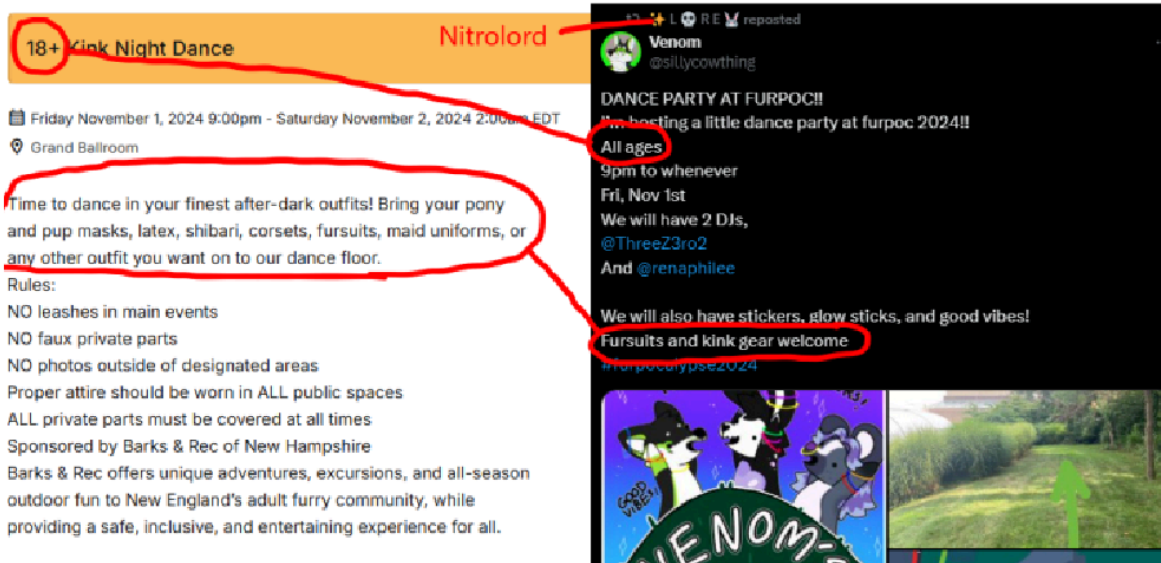

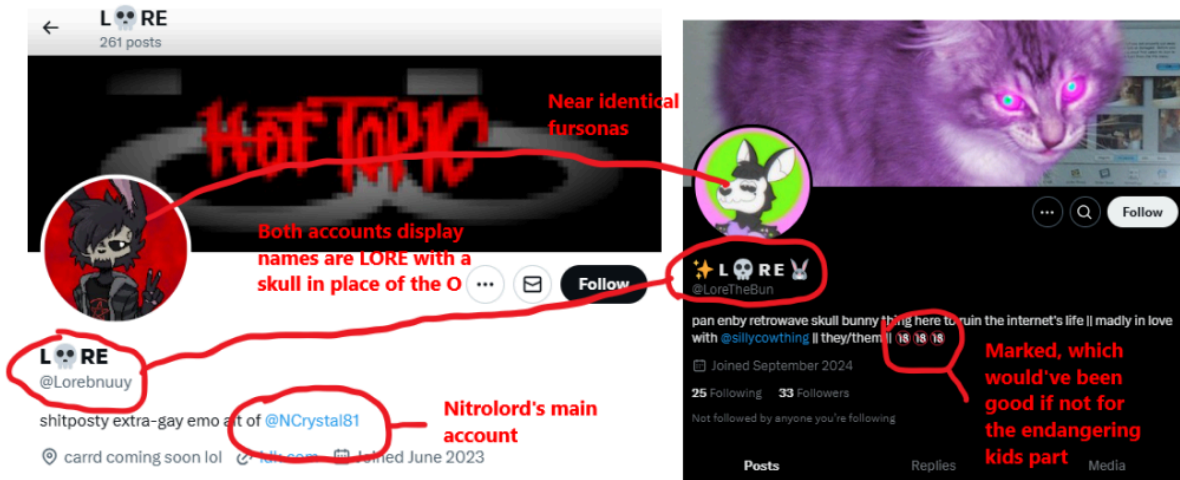

Image on the right was tweeted by Nitrolord's gf, and then retweeted by Nitro himself.
Image on the left is supposedly the SAME party on the official Furpocalypse website.
Nitrolord was advertising an 18+ kink dance party as all ages along with his girlfriend.

This image should be proof enough for Nitrolord being LoreTheBun.

After proclaiming that they were going to stop all of this with the quote “I can’t do much to prove to you guys that I won’t do something like this ever again other than to allow time to pass and not do anything like this again.”, they did stay dormant for about a month. However, by scraping through social media accounts related to Nitro, namely their girlfriend’s account, we came across a suspicious account in their replies. Nitro had done it again. Nitro had made ANOTHER twitter account AFTER the apology where they specifically said they wouldn’t. However, this one had an 18+ marking, so I wrote it off initially as just a way to connect with the older side of the furry fandom.

That was, until they announced the party.

Nitrolord and his girlfriend, @sillycowthing, sent out an invitation for a party marked as “all ages” that, for SOME reason, allowed KINK GEAR.

This was already convincing enough, but I did a bit more digging and found out that, for some reason, this party was being hosted on the EXACT SAME NIGHT at the EXACT SAME PLACE as an 18+ furry gathering. Same exact starting time, too.

The Manipulation and Lies

Nitrolord is a deceitful, untrustworthy cheat with an apology video rife with lies.

They lied about their activity on Twitter by saying they use it much less, even though the official Nitrolord Twitter is still very much active and so is his new account, LoreTheBun.

They promised their audience this (Lorebnuuy) wouldn't happen again, and broke that promise with the creation of LoreTheBun.

Nitrolord then states in their apology they never intended to endanger children with the Lorebnuuy account. They then went on to advertise and co-host an all ages furry kink gear dance party, possibly endangering children as the event is listed as all ages when it should be advertised as 18+.

Nitrolord stated that managing two accounts (@NCrystal81 & @Lorebnuuy) was hard work. This was also a lie as they then went on to create LoreTheBun and continue managing 2 Twitter accounts.

Conclusion & Evidence

Conclusion

In short, Nitrolord cannot be trusted at all. They manipulated their audience in the Lorebnuuy apology video stating that they'd never do something like this again and lied about Twitter activity and managing two accounts, and they then went on to advertise an 18+ kink gear dance party as all ages with their partner, @sillycowthing which possibly endangered children which he originally said he would never do and was never his intention with the Lorebnuuy account.

Evidence

 The Exposal of Nitrolord

The original document that was made with the intent of exposing Nitrolord.

<https://x.com/sillycowthing/status/1843003771766374409>

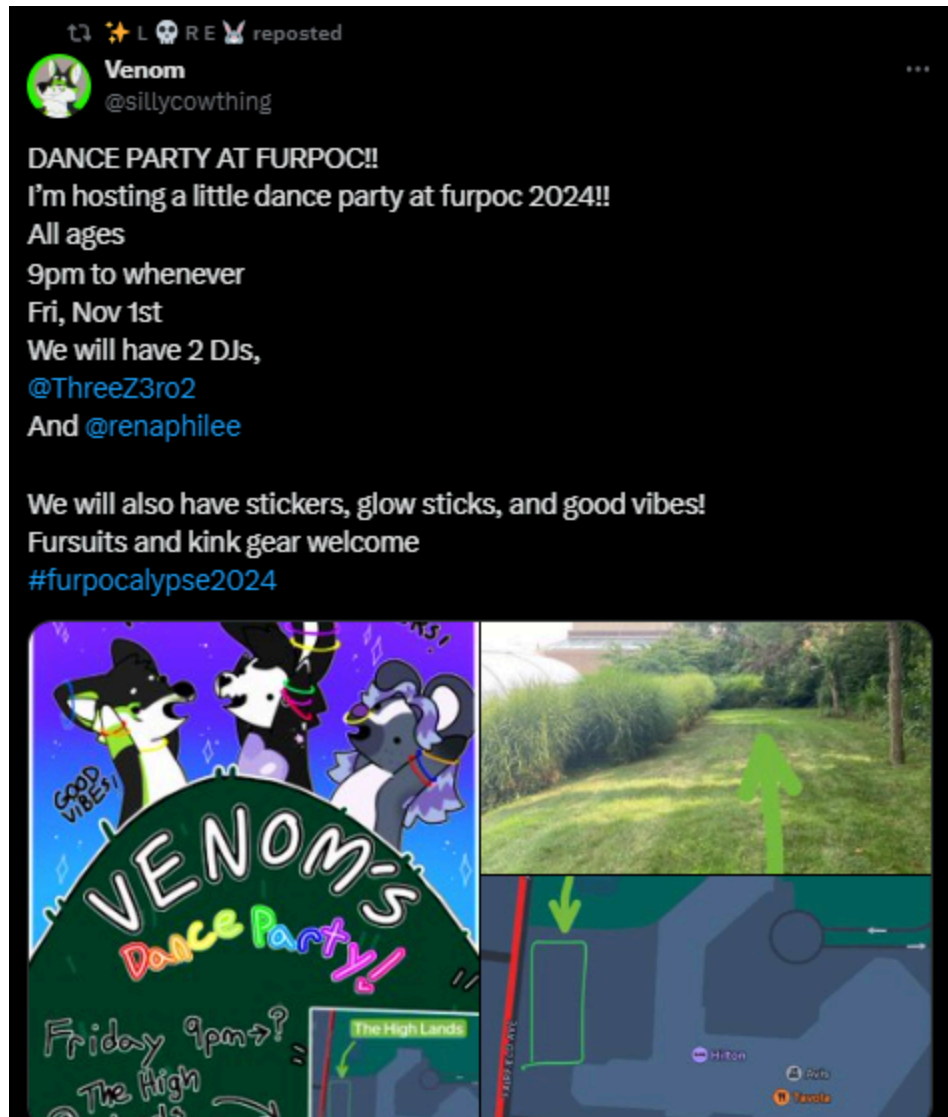

Nitrolord's girlfriend made it aware that they were the co-host of the party.

<https://x.com/sillycowthing/status/1843013237018661168>

Original post and reply stating that it was meant to be all ages, with kink gear allowed, and saying that LoreTheBun was co-hosting.

@sillycowthing (Nitrolord's partner) advertising the event with Nitrolord retweeting it. You can clearly see the text "ALL AGES but... Takes place on kink night"

The original tweet advertising the event, where it's specified that both all ages and kink gear are welcome. Again, you can see that Nitrolord retweeted this.

UPDATE

Nitrolord has since released a video reacting to this doc, and throughout the video he lied about numerous things relating to the Revivalbloxia discord, his twitter activity and accounts and more.

Nitrolord stated that the now infamous “all ages furry kink gear dance party” was in fact all ADULT ages. If this is true, why wasn’t it stated anywhere?

He also stated that the staff team of the Revivalbloxia discord were waiting to reel in more members before dropping THIS document, despite the fact it was written on November 9th and dropped on November 9th when the server had roughly 620 members.

Another thing about the server, he stated that the server tricked him into thinking they were on his “side” when in actuality Nitrolord barely spoke in there, so it’s not like they could’ve been “tricked” in the first place. Nitrolord also was the one who wanted to be more involved in the server by asking the server’s owner, Cog to make a #new-videos channel for Nitrolord’s channel and in exchange they would put the server link on their Youtube. The server was originally made for the community and not for Nitro.

He also also stated that he liked risque suggestive tweets on his main BEFORE using the Lorebnuuy account. He started using the Lorebnuuy account in April, the tweets were made in May.

He is a liar. You shouldn’t trust him.
